

Do you know where the profit opportunities are in your operation?

Mercantile Systems can easily help find them.

- Find out where suggestive selling can increase profits.
- See your business through the eyes of your customer – what's working and what's not.
- Turn information about your day-to-day operations into profit-making changes.
- Determine if profits are walking out the door in the form of lost sales, or theft.

...and build staff morale and retention in the process!

All without adding to your own list of things to do!

Our services include:

- Customized Programs for Surveying and Assessing Your Operation
 - * Customer Experience Surveying
 - * Integrity Surveying
 - * Customer Comment Collection via Phone and Web
 - * Employee Reward Programs
- Consultation
- Expert Analysis including Summary Reports & Assessment Recommendations
